Dear Parents/Guardians,

I am delighted to inform you that the Sunday Times School Guide 2019, published 18 November 2018, ranked St Joseph's as the 2nd best state Primary School in the country!

The Sunday Times compiled their table using data from the most recent examination results.

We are delighted for the whole school community who have continued to aspire to excellence despite the circumstances of the last three years when we have been recovering from the school fire of September 2015.

It is the children that we are most proud of; their resilience and love for learning is an example to us all at St Joseph's and to their peers nationally.

We will continue to ensure that the children's expectations are not formed by the circumstances around them, but that they will form their future through high expectations and a desire to fulfil their potential, whatever their circumstances.

Thank you to my staff who have worked very hard to ensure that our children achieved the very best, of which they are more than capable.

On a personal note to parents and guardians, thank you for supporting our school and sharing in our vision - 'Our expectations for pupils is limitless'.

God bless,

Mrs D Titus
Headmistress
