Dear Children

Wednesday 23 September 2015

I am writing this letter to personally thank you for listening to your teachers and for following their instructions on Tuesday afternoon.

I want you to know that I am so proud of you. You remembered how to leave the building when the alarm rings; you stayed calm and you were all very brave.

I know lots of you were worrying about your coats, your bags and your PE kits. The Catholic Children's Society is going to help me replace them for you.

I have had messages from other schools in Brent and across London. They are offering to help us and they are keeping you in their thoughts and prayers.

I promise you that I will keep working hard to bring us all back together very soon.

Please remember our school prayer in which it says many hands build a house, but many hearts make a school. This is what will make us stronger; our love of the school and our care for each other.

I will write to your parents tomorrow with an update.

God bless

Mrs Titus
