

Week beginning 23/9/2021

My favourite book, at the moment, is 'The Butterfly Lion' by Michael Morpurgo. This story tells the story of Bertie, who rescues an orphaned white lion cub. The story is set initially in Africa, but when Bertie is sent away to boarding school in England the lion is sold to a circus and the two friends become separated.

I really enjoy reading this story because it is a story of friendship and it helps me to remember that friendship is important even if you are not always close by.

My favourite character in the book was Millie, because she was kind and polite. In the story Millie puts Bertie before herself and I think that is an excellent way to treat people. I also really like the character of Bertie because he is resilient.

I very much enjoy reading books by the author Michael Morpurgo. Other books of his that I recommend are 'Cool' and 'Running Wild'.
