Book Title: The Scarecrow and the Servant

Author: Phillip Pullman

Genre: Fiction

The book is about a scarecrow that is alive because of lightening. A lovely boy saw the scarecrow and suddenly the scarecrow saw him and annoyed him to be his servant.

I would recommend this book to others because it is exciting. You will read a lot of pages because I predict that you will love it.

Another book written by this author is 'A Book of Dust' which is for older children.
