

Week beginning 22/11/2021

This book was called Amazing Grace and it was written by Mary Hoffman. The book had lots of fun pictures which told the story. It was about a girl who wanted to be a character called Peter Pan and she got the part in the play. I really like this book because the author was giving us a message that we can do anything if we just put our mind to it.

Amelia 2M