Book: Spot's in a Bad Mood

Spot woke up in a bad mood. Everything annoyed him. He was very grumpy. He stomped about in a circle and he let out an angry roar. He was rude to the other animals so his friends told him to 'stop being silly!' Then his friends played hide and seek without him. Soon, Spot realised he was being silly so stopped being grumpy.

I like this book because it teaches us how to treat our friends. This book is about love and friendship.
