

Year 5 pupils being introduced to new library books bought with money raised by World Book Day.

Spring 2023

"I really enjoyed looking at the new books. We have lots of books in our library but to get some new graphic novels is really great."

"We are reading the Roman Kemp book Listen Up in book club so I was very excited to see that the library now has his next book Shout Out, I can't wait to read it."