Title: Artemis Fowl.

Author: Eoin Colfer.

This book was about a 12 year old boy who is a plotting and crime maker genius. He plans to be like his family and even better at corrupting and very sneaky kidnapping. When he once was about to commit a crime he discovered a new world that was armed and very dangerous.

I liked this book because it showed me how he wanted to show his family that he can really be a criminal and live like all of his ancestors.

I would recommend this book to everyone to remind them that if your family had done some great things, you should always try and make them proud by living just like them.

Summary:

11 year old Bianca Albedo suffers terribly after her brother Finn Albedo unexpectedly turns into an ice statue. Hearing this news she decides to stop at nothing to find out how he turned to ice to discover how she could bring him back. During the story I kept thinking about how Bianca was feeling about her brother turning to ice so suddenly and risking her life trying to save his. Further into the story, she discovers a magic book which is a clue to more and more innocent lives of innocent children being taken away. She discovers that the only way of finding him is to be like him... an ice statue. After she turns in into an ice statue she was magically transported to Winterton a place where winter lasts forever. Suddenly, a friendly reindeer called Pordis decides to help Bianca on her mission. At the end of the story she find Finn in the Ice castle and the power of love and friendship freed everyone and everyone went back to their simple, normal lives.

The End

Would you recommend this book? Why?

I recommend this book to my sister because she loves mysteries and fantasy, and also happily ever afters.
